CHARLES SIMMS.

Gill Nets! Gill Nets!

To the Citizens of Washington, Frederick, and Montgomery counties.

AS the General Assembly of Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac. Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggons, while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some procured their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be:—they would take the bread from our mouths if they could do it—and they certainly will the fish if left to themselves. It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season; such a number of Nets will form such an obsturction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts.

The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity affordeded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families.

If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last.

Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon all those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended,—and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delelgates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request the favor of the editors of the Fredericktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.

Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Gone to the Southward or Westward,

A YELLOW WOMAN, called Celia Detcher, in the 23d year of her age, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high—marks like moles on the right side of her face, which, with several letters on her left arm, were made with india ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two weeks ago, by a man of the name of Basset. It is supposed they have gone to the westward: Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempts be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Apart as we wish to keep ourselves from the clashings of political opinions, and the heat of party contention, (did such things as party feuds exist) we feel no apprehension of entangling ourselves in either, or exciting disapprobation or controversy, by saying a few words on the subject of the president's message: nor have we the least hesitation in saying that we think it a state paper such as it well becomes a wise, virtuous, and unostentatious chief magistrate to address to the people of a great and enlightened republic. It is strikingly distinguished by the solidity and importance of its matter, and the total absence of that frippery and affectation of fine writing, which has heretofore too often disguised our state papers, and imparted to them the air rather of prize pieces in an academy than the grave productions of plain and profound counsellors of state.—So much important matter of fact, vigorous argument, and irresistible inference, has seldom gone abroad with so little ornament. It is indeed a plain tale, which, by the internal evidence of its truth, must put down all animadversion. The proceedings in Florida are elucidated in the most satisfactory manner, and the conduct of our government to Spain is exhibited in a view which must call for the approbation of every citizen who regards the true glory of this country, as it cannot fail to excite the admiration of all foreign powers, by its dignified temper, and at the same time its resolute assertion of the rights and power of the U. States, should future circumstances demand an exertion of them. Nor will the praise due it appear the less, when it is considered how difficult and delicate the course must have been, between the maintenance of our own rights and national standing, and the forbearance which magnanimity and conscious superiority must dictate as due to the feeble, the embarrassed, and the deplorable condition of that unfortunate, superannuated country.

This is our candid opinion of the message; and we have the stronger hope that it is one in which the nation generally will be found to concur with us, because it contains no one topic that has a tendency to kindle controversy, to excite the opposition of any man, or to give offence to any party.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Thursday, Nov. 19.

The proceedings in the house of representatives yesterday were, like those of the day before, almost all the customary business of referring (in a committee of the whole on the state of the nation) to their respective proper committees the several distinct propositions contained in the president's message, and appointing the standing committees. In addition to the subjects selected for reference from the president's suggestions, Mr. Taylor proposed the reference to separate committees of the following:

1st. Of foreign affairs and the independence of South America, to a select committee.

2d. Of military affairs, the proceedings of the court martial on the trial of Arbuthnot and Ambristie, and the conduct of the war against the Seminole Indians.

3d. Of the subject of public buildings; and

4th. Of the question whether any amendments are necessary to the act of last session granting pensions to the surviving officers and soldiers of the revolution.

In the committee of the whole, Mr. Pitkin disliked the adoption of those references, as it had always been customary for the house, in a committee of the whole on the state of the nation, to confine themselves to the president's message; and Mr. Taylor forbearing to urge them, they were laid upon the table till the speaker took the chair, and then adopted.

The Rev. Burgess Allison was re-elected chaplain of the house.

The standing committees appointed by the house consist of the following members.

Of Ways and Means.—Messrs. Smith of Md. Burwell, Pitkin, Sergeant, Trimble, Crawford and Tallmadge.

Of Elections.—Messrs. Taylor of New-York, Alex. Smyth, Merrill, Shaw, Boss, Whitman and Tarr.

Of Commerce and Manufactures.—Messrs Newton, Seybert, M'Lane of Del. Mason of Mass. Irving, Baldwin and Kinsey.

Of the District of Columbia.—Messrs. Herbert, Peter, Boden, Cobb, Claiborne, Colston and Stuart of Md.

Of Public Lands.—Messrs. Poindexter, Campbell, Hendricks, Terry, Jones and Butler of Loua.

Of the Post Office and Post Roads.—Messrs. Livermore, Blount, Barber of Ohio, Townsend, Sampson, Terrell and Little.

Of Pensions and Revolutionary Claims.—Messrs. Rhea, Wilkin, Ruggles, W. P. Maclay, Owen and Orr.

Of Public Expenditures.—Messrs. Desha, Anderson of Pa. Garnett, Cushman, J. S. Smith, Hunter, and Williams of Con.

On the Judiciary.—Messrs. H. Nelson of Vir'a. Hopkinson, Edwards, Beecher, Storrs, Quarles and Mosely.

Of private Land Claims.—Messrs. Robertson, Pindall, Hogg, Hubbard, Bayley, R. Moore and B. Smith.

Of Enrolled Bills.—Messrs. W. Wilson and Speed.

Of Revisal and Unfinished Business.—Messrs. Taylor of N. Y., Hale and Whiteside.

COMMUNICATION.

Musical School.—It is with more than ordinary interest that I have witnessed for some time past the efforts of a musical instructor to establish a school in this place on a permanent basis. His success thus far (if it is to be a criterion) presents but an unsubstantial view of remuneration hereafter. That so little taste should exist for a science so instructive and so fascinating, in a town where, from the refinement of its citizens, a contrary feeling was naturally to be expected, is indeed a matter of much astonishment. While the young men of Georgetown and Washington are rapidly advancing in musical knowledge, we are as rapidly degenerating into a supineness as lamentable as it is unworthy. Do not let us suffer our remissness any longer to increase in proportion as their activity is exerted—but, in a noble spirit of emulation, strive to obtain the ascendency in a pursuit which is not only creditable to the town, but highly honorable to each individual engaged in it.

It is not altogether with a view to call public attention to the professional merits of an instructor, that these remarks are elicited—but to awaken a laudable desire in our citizens to profit themselves by becoming acquainted with a science as rational as it is delightful—as virtuous as it is enlivening—as dignified as it is instructive,—and as praiseworthy as it is patriotic. D.

☞An error occured, yesterday, in copying the names of the Senators: instead of Mr. Ashmun, from Massachusetts, read Prentiss Mellin; from Louisiana, instead of Thomas Johnson, read Henry Johnson; from Georgia, there is yet no appointment to supply the place of Mr. Troop.

The President of the United Sates has appointed Joseph G. Swift, Surveyor and Inspector of the Revenue for the port of N. York.

A very interesting scene was witnessed at Oporto a few months since—the opening of an English chapel for the celebration of divine worship, the first and only protestant church in the peninsula. Besides the merchants, the British and Dutch consuls attended—several English officers in the Portuguese service, masters of vessels, travellers, and sea-faring men, joined the congregation. The chaplain (a truly pious divine) delivered a very appropriate and impressive discourse on the occasion, which was heard with deep attention. The sacred edifice is a small but elegant building, and reflects great credit on the piety and taste of the British factors.

LOTTERY CASE.

On Tuesday last commenced the trial of Charles N. Baldwin, the editor of the Republican Chronicle, for a libel, in publishing that there had been fraud and villany in the management of our lotteries: the trial lasted three days, and was committed to the jury this morning a little before 2 o'clock. The defendant relied for his justification on proving the truth of the charges. What these charges were, the public cannot have forgotten: they consisted principally, of the assertion that there was a corrupt understanding between John H. Sickles, one of the acting managers at the drawing, and Napthali Judah, by which the latter was enabled to have a secret knowledge of the state of the wheel, so as to know that certain numbers would be drawn on a particular day, and that they would not be drawn on certain other days; by means of which information, the latter was enabled to practice frauds upon the other lottery offices, and did so to a large amount by inducing them to insure, as they supposed, against the happening of certain contingencies, but which were moral certainties.—Many charges of the same iniquitous nature were stated to the public by the defendant, as well as of negligencies and improprieties on the part of the managers.—Numerous witnesses were examined to prove these facts. On the other hand, several of the most respectable men in the city joined to say that they had known Mr. Sickles many years, and he had hitherto borne a good character. Mr. Sickles, Mr. Judah, and Mr. Denniston, were severally sworn on the part of the prosecution, to disprove the charges. Finally, after the address of able and eloquent counsel on both sides, his honor the mayor, (although the court had, with great patience, listened for three days to the evidence and the counsel,) recapitulated all the testimony with great minuteness, accompanied with remarks as he went along, and delivered the cause to the jury just before 2 o'clock this morning. They retired for a few minutes, and returned with a verdict in favor of the defendant; a verdict, which, I venture to say, met with the approbation of every impartial spectator. In the course of the charge, the mayor said, that Mr. Baldwin had satisfactorily made good the charges which he had published; and that, instead of finding him guilty of a libel, he deserved the thanks, not only of the jury, but of every honest man in this community, for having exposed a scene of fraud and wickedness almost unparalleled. As a correct report of this case is preparing, and will shortly appear from the press of Mr. Baldwin himself, from minutes taken in court by a gentleman of uncommon accuracy, and as the sale of this report will be all that he can expect to remunerate him for the expense which this vexatious trial has involved him in, it is hoped that the preference will be given by purchasers to his pamphlet. To this report therefore, I must refer the public for a more particular account of what passed at this extraordinary trial, in the issue of which the character of the state of New-York is deeply implicated. When this report appears, it will develope such a train of fraud and iniquity, as will amaze every reader. Counsel for the prosecution, Pierre C. Van Wyck, District Attorney, Peter A. Jay, and John Welles, Esquires. For the defendant, Joseph D. Fay, David B. Ogden, and Josiah O. Hoffman, Esquires.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

Arrived at this port yesterday, the October packet ship Pacific, captain Williams, in 45 days from Liverpool.—By this arrival we have received London papers to the 29th of September inclusive, and a Liverpool paper of the 1st of October—13 days later than were before received.

The German papers state, that there is no longer any doubt that Count Bernstoff would be placed at the head of the Prussian administration as Vice Chancellor and Minister of Foreign Affairs. It would appear strange, the same paper continues, that a foreign ambassador should become minister of state to the court of which he is accredited.

Tranquillity was restored in the University of Gottingen, where the students had been riotous.

An English Quaker.—An article from Rouen contains a proud testimony to the disinterested and generous conduct of Messrs. Fox and Son, of Bristlington, near Bristol, who having obtained possession of property by the capture of French vessels, in the first American war, refunded it to the French merchants from whom the vessels had been taken. A further sum by way of interest, is placed by them in the hands of the treasurer of the marine invalids at Paris, to be distributed among poor French mariners and their children.

The greatest tranquillity prevailed in France; and the king has resumed his usual course of ceremonies and masses.

Gen. Sir Gregor M'Gregor, had arrived at the Donegal arms, in Belfast.

Considerable damage has been sustained in Cardiganshire, by the heavy gales of wind, and tremendous torrents of rain.—Trees were torn up the roots, and cottages and bridges swept away, while the low lands have been inundated to a considerable extent.

Mr. Kean made his first appearance for the season at Drury Lane theatre, on the 28th of Sept. in the character of Richard. He was received by the audience with great applause. Most of the ladies ornamented their hair with white roses, in compliment to the representative of the chief of the York faction. Mr. Henry Kemble appeared for the first time as Richmond. Barnard performed the part formerly sustained by Wallack, and acquitted himself creditably.

The cotton spinners at Manchester had become orderly; but the turn-out weavers still refuse to return to their employment. There was to have been a meeting of that class of workmen at Preston, where delegates from the different manufacturing towns were to attend.

The London Sun of the 29th, mentions, that they had received a letter from their correspondent at Paris that day, containing an account of the dreadful massacre at Nismes; but on account of the late hour, deferred publishing the particulars till the next day.

Letters had been received in London from the Discovery ships under capt. Ross, dated 1st August, in lat 75, 48, N. long. 61, 30, W. They state that the ice was clearing away, and that their prospect of success was improving.

Field Marshal Prince Blucher, is gradually recovering his health.

The London Courier says, that experienced nautical men, who have had an opportunity of inspecting the steam-vessel of Lord Cochrane, have been struck with its remarkable adaptation for navigating upon such a coast as the windward island of St. Helena; and observes, as a naval officer Lord Cochrane never shewed himself deficient in enterprize, and to his natural ardor is now added the excitement of desperate fortunes. His character has been much mistaken, or there are few things that would gratify him more than to become the liberator of Napoleon. If he succeeded his fate would be linked with that of Bonaparte; if he failed he might still be an Insurgent admiral. But it is said he has gone to Chili; it will not be much out of his way to call at St. Helena. The Courier also mentions the recent union of the Bonapartists in the province of Texas, on the Trinity river, who may probably supply resources long since contemplated.

Liverpool Market.—From Myers' Remarks, Sept. 26.—The transactions in cotton this week have been very limited, the total public and private sales not exceeding 5700 bags; of which, 250 Sea Islands at 3s 3s4; 250 Orleans, 20½d to 22d; 1150 Boweds, 19½ to 21½ and 21¼d; 150 Bengals, 9½ to 13½d. The public sales yesterday, at which 3000 bags were brought forward, were very indifferently attended by the trade, and only 3200 were sold, which went off heavily, viz. 1214 Bengals at 9¼d to 10d; 470 Orleans, 20½ to 22¼d; 440 Tennessee, 17¾ to 19¼d. The Bengals declined ¼d per lb. on the last public sale, and other descriptions ½ to ¾d.—Our tobacco market is steady, and rather higher prices have been paid for fine leaf, but on the whole, less business has been doing. Prime N. York pot ashes have been sold at 52s6; pearls rather dull at 58s. Nothing has been done this week in any description of rice. About 50 hhds. Philad. bark have been taken at 20s. About 200 bls. Carolina tar have been taken at 15s3, and 678 bls. N. York turpentine, of middling quality at 15s 6d. Sugar declined 1s per cwt; coffee went off heavily yesterday, at a decline of 5s to 7s per cwt.

London, Sept. 22.—An article from Frankfort mentions, that the United States, having resolved to send Ministers Plenipotentiary only to the courts of London, Paris, Vienna, Petersburgh, and Berlin, there will be merely a simple Charge d' Affaires accredited to the King of Sweden.

The continental journals are more fertile in speculations than our own even, as to what subjects will occupy the deliberations of the approaching Congress. This is natural; for the States in which they are published would be more immediately affected by any political arrangements which might be determined upon in that assembly. The army of occupation in France; the disputes of Spain with Portugal, with the United States, and with her own colonies; and the affairs of Germany, have been confidently named as among the subjects in question. To these are now added, in an article from Augsburgh, some complaints of the Court of Denmark against Sweden, respecting the accomplishment of the third paragraph of late treaty of Kiel; and the piracies of the Barbary powers. "It is asserted," says the same account, "that with regard to the former, the conferences which took place in London on the 28th of July, and the proces-verbal of which was sent to the high allied powers, will be continued even after the congress." We confess for our own parts, this is the first allusion we remember to have seen upon the matter."

Ordered, That the tax of $11 improperly charged to Jacob Hoffman, be deducted from his tax bill.

The committee for superintending the finishing of the new market-house, laid before council an application from T. Mountford, jun. manager of the Alexandria museum, for a part of the upper story over the north end of said market-house, for keeping the museum in,—whereupon it was ordered that the before-mentioned committee be authorized to contract with the said T. Mountford, jun. for the room required, upon such terms as they, with the consent of the mayor, may think proper.

Leave was granted to bring in a bill to amend the act, entitled an act supplementary to an act passed the 30th of March, 1807, establishing a watch, and laying taxes for paying the same—which was read a first time and laid on the table.

Ordered, That Messrs. McGuire, Gird, Keene and Veitch, be a committee to enquire into the expediency of aiding the incorporated and other societies of the town, in carrying into execution measures for the further security of the town against fire.

Ordered, That the street commissioner do cause the foot way on the east side of St. Asaph, between Cameron and Queen streets, to be regulated as far as Thomas Irwin's fence, provided the expense does not exceed $30, and charge the same to the third ward.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania. I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NORLET HERBERT, esq. or

Gill Nets! Gill Nets!

To the Citizens of Washington, Frederick, and Montgomery counties.

AS the General Assembly of Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac. Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggons, while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some procured their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be:—they would take the bread from our mouths if they could do it—and they certainly will the fish if left to themselves. It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season; such a number of Nets will form such an obsturction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts.

The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity affordeded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families.

If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last.

Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon all those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended,—and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delelgates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request the favor of the editors of the Fredericktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.
